Bus

Local buses are known as the Frescao. There are over 1000 bus lines in Rio de Janeiro but here are no schedules or timetables. There is a helpful book called Ruas de Rio de Janeiro (The streets of Rio de Janeiro) that contains maps and lists bus routes by bus line. Usually buses run every 15 minutes but less during the nighttime hours. Bus tickets usually start around ~1.50 USD. There is no change given so it is advantageous to carry small bills/coins. It is advised to stay aware for pickpockets.

The long distance bus service is the Rodoviária Novo Rio. More information can be found on their website found here.

Subway

The Metrô Rio subway system is very useful for reaching areas from Copacabana to Downtown. It is the safest transport in Rio. The air-conditioned subway is clean, comfortable, and quick, and in 2006 it includes bilingual Portuguese-English signs, maps, and a loudspeaker system to make the life of foreign tourists. There are two main lines: Line 1 (Orange) has service to Copacabana, the Saara district, and much of Downtown, as well as Tijuca, where you can visit Corcovado. Line 2 (Green) stops at the zoo, Maracanã stadium, and Rio State University. The two lines intersect at Estácio station. Operating hours are 5 am to midnight Monday through Saturday and 7 am to 11 pm on Sundays and Holidays.

The Copacabana – Siqueira Campos Station is 1.2 miles from the JW Marriott Hotel Rio De Janeiro.

A single ticket is ~2.00 USD.

More information can be found on Metrô Rio’s website found here.
